

The child gets to practice eating independently!

Mess is allowed! We clean up together.

When a child is learning to eat on their own, they explore food with all their senses. The child learns to recognize the feeling of fullness.